

Early Literacy Pathways

Very Special Field Trips to the Louisiana Children's Museum

- Free admission
- Free book for every child
- Early Literacy activities included
- Free book for the school library

Sign up your students for New Orleans Public Library cards and give a life-long reading habit.

Bring your class to the LCM for a free fully-facilitated Museum experience that motivates students and reinforces early language and literacy skills, such as phonemic awareness, contextual learning, and listening skills. Sign up students for library cards and promote reading all year round.

- Monday and select Tuesdays 9:30am to 11:30am or 12:00 to 2:00pm
  - Grades Pre-K through 2nd (Orleans Public Schools)
- Group size must be a minimum of 40 and a maximum of 50 students
  - Bring 1 adult chaperone for every 4 students

Reservations are required. To get on the schedule, act today.

To request further information, call: Sarah Clark, sclark@lcm.org, 504-266-2410
Reservation form is available online at the Louisiana Children's Museum website: www.lcm.org

Literacy Pathways is a partnership between the New Orleans Public Library and the Louisiana Children's Museum, made possible by a generous grant from Target.

To receive library card applications and assistance in your classroom library card drive, call the Children's Room at the Main Library at 596-2588. Allow ten working days to process a group of applications.